O What An Evening!

A Celebration OF THE 1983 WORLD CHAMPS

IT WAS SUMMER, 1983, AND ORIOLES MAGIC WAS IN THE AIR. Record numbers of fans flocked to Memorial Stadium to cheer on their beloved Birds, led by Wild Bill Hagy and his Section 34 Rowdies. They cheered as Tippy picked off three and again when call-up catcher, John Stefero, singled home the winning run two nights in a row.

Led by future Hall of Famers Jim Palmer, Eddie Murray, Cal Ripken, Jr., and WS MVP Rick Dempsey, the 1983 Orioles forged one of the greatest campaigns in franchise history, culminating in a 4-games-to-1 World Series conquest of the Philadelphia Phillies. Thanks for being part of this very special tribute. We know you'll enjoy the show.
